“This is a wonderful cottage suite, walking distance to beach, cafes, shops and supermarkets. Everything has been thought of to make your stay really comfortable and Di has been wonderful to deal with. Port Lincoln has some amazing sights and is well worth the visit” . - Shaun

“The perfect base for your Eyre Peninsula visit” - The Manor provided the perfect home base for a visit to the Eyre Peninsula, being very centrally located within Port Lincoln. Di was the consummate host. Everything we needed or could need in the house was there (from chilled water and milk in the fridge, to washing powder, to a fully-equipped kitchen, to an umbrella should it happen to rain) Di was readily contactable before and during the stay, without being intrusive. I particularly appreciated the extensive local tips she provided to me upon request (must – see places and experiences) which ensured we had booked in places we otherwise would have missed as they would have been booked out. The property is newly renovated and extremely comfortable. I typically stay in hotels as I have concerns about Airbnb etc. being a bit hit and miss in terms of cleanliness and concerns about cancellation if the host decides to use the place themselves etc. The Manor offers all the homeliness and space of a real house (i.e. what might compel you to prefer Airbnb over a hotel) with the professionalism of an experienced tourism operator/host. I would fully recommend The Manor to anyone looking for accommodation in Port Lincoln. We specifically stayed in “Suite 2” – I believe there is another full side of the property which is ‘Suite 1’ which is no doubt similarly decked out. - Caroline

A very luxurious and comfortable stay in Port Lincoln! “You won’t be disappointed! Di has very cleverly designed this home and styled it to such a luxurious standard. We drove from Adelaide to Port Lincoln in one go, so to arrive to this accommodation and have a nice hot shower then to collapse in a cloud of a bed was amazing! This accommodation is only a few short minutes to the water front, also a short walk to Woolworths and Kmart. Highly recommend. Thanks for having us again, Di” – Robyn
